

PHILADELPHIA 2012

HIGHSPEED

8th World Congress on High Speed Rail

High-Speed Rail Comes to the U.S.!

UNDERGRADUATE AND GRADUATE STUDENTS, volunteer your time to assist with the largest international High-Speed Rail conference in the world, to be held in the U.S. for the first time.

Three reasons why you should volunteer:

- WORLD — Witness the developments of High-Speed Rail around the world.
- U.S. — Be part of making High-Speed Rail a reality in the U.S.
- JOBS — Network with companies and transportation executives from around the world to learn about jobs in the industry.

Conference Registration for Student Volunteers is FREE and includes:

- Admission to program sessions
- Daily volunteer lunch
- Networking opportunities with potential employers

To be eligible, the student must:

- Be currently enrolled in a college or university and be at least 18 years of age
- Commit to at least 3 shifts (availability on a first-come basis)
- Submit application form with GPA and a letter of endorsement from a professor, school advisor, or counselor
- Cover travel, lodging, and additional meal expenses

Volunteer Dates

- Tuesday, July 10
- Wednesday, July 11
- Thursday, July 12
- Friday, July 13

Volunteer Hours

- AM shift: 7:30 AM – Noon
- PM shift: 11:30 AM – 6:00 PM

FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE WORLD CONGRESS, GO TO UIC-HIGHSPEED2012.COM

For additional information on this volunteer opportunity, please contact Julia Walker at jwalker@apta.com.